RUG290TP Beeper (Jonny L & Qemists Remixes) - The Count & Sinden Domino Records 12" Vinyl

Limited White label Vinyl pressing featuring two mixes by drum and bass legend Jonny L and new school drum and bass front runners, The Qemists. Graeme Sinden is best known for his work as a unique producer / DJ who has revitalised the club scene with his own brand of forward thinking remixes and productions, clever mash ups and genre-melting DJ sets, remixing for the likes of Basement Jaxx, Bonde Do Role and Mark Ronson. He's also known for his spot on Kiss FM and residency at Fabric. Sinden's own label Counterfeet launched in March 2006, its ethos: to have an open mind towards club music, releasing records that they believed in. Production wise, this forged a friendship and musical understanding with Dave 'Switch' Taylor and Sinden was very much taken under Switch's wings to learn the production game. And then came his collaboration with Joshua Harvey, aka The Count (aka Hervé), on their project The Count & Sinden.M 'Beeper' has already been playlisted at Radio 1, with further support from all the specialists at the station including Annie Mac, Zane Lowe and Jo Whiley.

New D 'n' B Promos

BRD001 Skyhook / The Scraper - Inside Info / Katharsys Breed 12 Inches 12" Vinyl

Finish copy promo. Crack the Champagne, get your dancing shoes on, and prepare yourself for another exciting move from Lifted Music. Since its inception Lifted Music has created a massive impact upon the Drum & Bass scene and beyond with their high quality, high octane releases. As well as their infamous Podcast series (with a listenership in excess of 100,000 avid fans), incredible branding and a master plan to deliver the next generation of artist's right to your aural doorstep.....The master plan is Lifted's brand new concept label 'Breed Twelve Inches', an imprint which will act as a starting block for musicians with extreme talent and production abilities. The main concept is simple; Breed Twelve Inches has been set up as a means to nurture new talent, a tool to help establish up and coming artists, raise them through the ranks until they are ready to debut their very best work on the colossal Lifted Music. Chris Renegade, the owner of Lifted Music, is stepping up to the plate, and having worked with the cream of Drum & Bass' artists through some of the D&B scene's biggest labels, we think he's in a pretty strong position to do so. As you would expect Chris Renegade is excited about the future of Breed: "Breed Twelve Inches is destined to be the future of progressive aggressive Drum & Bass, I'm looking for all round good produced music with high quality engineering, but the main importance is I'm looking for something a little different, something new. We're talking about receiving a fresh demo from an artist and offering them enough guidance and advice to see them through to a stage where they're doing serious damage on dancefloors around the world." With Lifted Music's already burgeoning reputation for bringing the bashiest beats this side of a Bruce Lee film, you'd be hard pressed not to take them seriously. Breed Twelve Inches will operate on a 'quality over quantity' basis, so, just as with its sister label, you can be assured that every release will be pure, unadulterated dancefloor destroying material.

SECOPS011 Inkasso - Seba & Krazy Secret Operations 12" Vinyl

Finish copy promo. Killer beats as Seba & Krazy take it back. Proper rolling business on the darkside 'Inkasso', as a echoing vocal swirls around the exterior and thudding bass holds down the interior, whilst stepper breaks drive the track. This one comes down like a late 90's Total Science or Digital production. The flip utilises a tight two-step break, Detroit style atmospheric and a modulated bass. Quality stuff, don't sleep on this one

SUBS003 The Basketball Hero Remixes - DJ ESP aka Woody Mc Bride Subsistenz 12" Vinyl

Finish copy promos. Raiden and Cooh step up to the plate to take on one of Techno's legendary classic trax Off The Ceiling by the acid master himself dj ESP aka Woody McBride. Raiden head honcho of Offkey records and pioneer of the ever growing Techno Dnb scene has once again added his no compromise approach and intense editing to full effect. Bringing Off The Ceiling to a whole new audience and raising the bar within the technoid community. The constant building and switching between grooves and metallic lines creates an intense journey through sounds of Techno and Dnb. Cooh one of the freshest artists on the planet at this minute continues to impress and deliver tracks of the highest order and this RMX is no exception. Taking a slightly different approach to the rework Cooh sends us down acid lane with high pressure 303s squelching out of every groove possible. ESP approved - enough said.

REVREC017 No Going Back - Break Revolution Recordings 12" Vinyl

Limited white label promo. Following on from the success of 'Spirits' 'Not Enough' and 'Longed Out', Break joins the Revolution with his first solo 12" and, as always, he has delivered the goods in style, with 'No going back' having featured on Break & Fierce's much lauded ATM Mag mix CD and on their celebrated appearance on Bailey's 1xtra show. A roller from the outset with its layered beats and hypnotic atmosphere, 'No going back' builds the pressure and doesn't stop. Once the bass groove gets hold and begins to work with the grinding mids there is quite literally no going back. Bad! 'Let it lie' is a gentle stepper that you can let do the work for you. Caressed by deep, temperate textures and hints of guitar, the boom bass will get heads nodding and bodies swaying while the hazy sunshine vibe will take care of the rest: a perfect summer anthem. Watch the ride. Be a part of the Revolution.

PATHOS002 Breathe & Ruff Like A Rock (Dub Tao RMXs) - Vybzs Kartell / Dr. Ring Ding Path%gical 12" Vinyl

Finish copy promo. Jack & Joe Pathos are back from a 3 month vacation from the Fiji Islands ... The war on vinyl still continues and the 'path%gical' motto is still something like : "VINYL IS SEXIER THAN EVER" or "The Medium is the Message" - but we don't care too much & the Pathological story continues with some fresh Reggae/Ragga vibes from the mighty Vybzs Kartell and Dr.Ring Ding. Dub Tao (Hard:edged) , the wonder kids from Berlin , got the allowance to do the remixes this time . The VYBZ KARTELL vocals from "Breathe" are fused into a D&B/Reggae groove that only DUB TAO could have made - some irie vocal licks & big dubby bass go perfectly with DUB TAOs tight & subtle beats to create the slick "Breathe" D&B RMX . Flip for a more dancefloor orientated remix of the massive "Ruff Like A Rock" from Dr.Ring Ding - a head nodding, lighter flashing riddim complete it with DUB TAOs bouncy basslines and nice breakdown. So you have the recipe for pure dancefloor greatness ! Supported by those who know - and there's no stopping: watch out for the heavy rolling ZERO TOLERANCE remixes on J.Rawls & Middle Child's "Music Over Madness" - just another BIGGIE !

Finish copy promo. CINEMATIC & P-R-S – LUMINOUS COLOURS Have-A-Break Recordings are proud to present you these two hot newcomers from Bristol / UK. The track "Luminous Colours" has already been played in different radio shows like BBC 1Xtra & filled the dancefloors all over the world. Melodic uplifting housey punchy beats and delightful melodies all come together with well compressed drums. In addition a warm bass lick is sure to shake any liquid loving floor. MATIZZ & STUNNA – DREAMLAND After his big success on LTJ Bukem's Good Looking, Nookie's Phuzion and Camino Blue Recordings, Matizz got together with Stunna to create this great melodic roller. Subby basslined enough to keep the dancefloors cookin', the track has a certain deepness reminiscent of the good old "intelligent" piano vibes. Both tracks have been played by a wide scope of DJs like Crissy Criss, Flight, Bailey, Nookie, Lomax, Ed Solo, Donnie Dubson, High Rankin and The Tripodz - to name only a few.

A superb chord progression on the pads leads into an even more magnificent main vocal, leading the way to more looped samples and an atmospheric backdrop of pure bliss. Big up to the Frenchmen – showin' the world how to do drum 'n bass right! What You Do To Me (Random Movement Remix): The RM remix presents a different take on this brilliant piece of work. The trademarked, upbeat feel that is ever-present on so many of Blu Saphir's releases is definitely noticed here. BWARE003 Symptomless Coma EP - Various Barcode 12" x 2

Finish copy promo. Barcode presents it's first release of 2008 and for many heads, this is where it all begins, for some, it may even be where it all ends. The Symptomless Coma EP is the sound that defines Barcode for many; in fact, it is such a nightclub staple that many folk have gotten thoroughly sick of it by now, wondering what the big deal was about the Symptomless Coma EP. Well, the big deal is this: It is hard and dark; the songs are meticulously crafted and each and every bar is filled with lovely explorations of decay, emptiness, and fear. With each artist from a different country this record is a lot more diverse than previous projects, conceptually and musically representing the ever-changing global drum and bass sound.

NFALL001 Runway / Without A Trace - Psidream & Pacific Nightfall 12" Vinyl

Finish copy promo. Psidream and Pacific push their sound to the next level with the launch of their new label Nightfall Recordings. Focusing on the futuristic but musical dancefloor vibes, Nightfall will serve as a main channel for their best work, collaborative or solo. Runway and Without A Trace are funk fueled rollers and were essential in shaping the sound of Nightfall. A1 - Runway: Runway starts off with tense atmosphere and a mid-line tease. The energy builds and eventually drops into a grimey bassline with rolling drums. A vocal hook joins them shortly and builds into a bassline switch which never fails to bring the funk. B1 - Without A Trace: Without A Trace starts off with big synth chords that carry the rest of the atmosphere which grows steady until a distinct melody is heard. No time wasted here, this tune drops right into an upfront lead, heavy bass line and running beats. Not long after, another switch is made with an even nastier bassline. Support: Ed Rush, Pendulum, Bad Company, Gridlok, Black Sun Empire, Cause 4 Concern, Concord Dawn, Bulletproof, State Of Mind, The Upbeats, etc.

New Dubstep Releases

ARG014 Under The Dancing Feet - Clouds featuring Tiiu Argon Records 12" Vinyl

Here it is! The release that's been on everyone's want list for what feels like an age! USA based Argon Records reach release number 14 in fine style, having being catapulted to the premier league of dubstep labels of late with UK live appearances at nights like DMZ from label head-honcho Nick Argon and argon artists Matty G and Tes La Rok along with the announcement of the forthcoming album from Matty G to also be released on Argon, things are moving fast and furious. Clouds is a Finnish electronic music production team that consists of Tommi Liikka and Samuli Tanner. Tommi is a Helsinki native and Samuli comes from a small village deep in rural Finland. The pair met through mutual friends in 1999, and ever since planned on working on some music together, hindered by both working on various projects and shows of their own. The plan was finally realised after a string of coincidences and happy accidents led them to sharing a house in the northern suburbs of Helsinki. Under The Dancing Feet has been an absolute phenomenon in the dubstep scene, tearing it up in the dance worldwide, garnering support from all the top DJ's from a variety of genres, including plays on Radio 1 experimental. With catchy vocals, melodic rhythms and pummelling bass this is surely the kind of tune to propel dubstep further into the mainstream. Do not sleep on this one it is sure to fly out.

BOKA017 My Story - Emalkay Boka Records 12" Vinyl

The prolific Boka Records strike again with their 17th release, and it does not disappoint, resident beat merchant Emalkay provides us with a total anthem! 'My Story' has been doing the rounds on Dubplate lately and ripping up raves across the globe, it's reminiscent of the Rusko vibe with the heavily dub influenced vocal sample carrying the tune along before the wobble-tastic drop gets everyone skanking out! 'My Story' is currently receiving big support from the bassline house dj's as well as the dubstep heads. Expect to hear this song more and more over the coming months. 'Crunk in Space' on the flip is more the sound we've come to expect from Emalkay, an ominous eerie intro suddenly explodes into an almost industrial sounding musical cacophony, another stomper sure to rock the dancefloor. A track that somehow manages to morph crunk, grime, electro and dubstep influences with devastating consequences. Another corking release from Boka!

This double a side 12" is a future classic and undoubtedly one of the finest releases on the label to date. SUBT002 Eat Your Fucking Dinner - Monster, Janner, Defekta & Rogue State Subtrakt 12" Vinyl

After the success of Subtrakt 001 Outta Here EP we have stepped it up with a 4tracker from the sounds of the north and south of island dubstep. Monsta known to most for his epic cartoons and cover work for Rufige Crew and GOLDIE takes a stand with his 1st outing on Subtrakt with Dinner - a head nodder of the finest order. Huge thick wobbling bass keeps the tight groove a plodding, whilst the subtle but cutting percs drive da tune along in its natural order. The 1st of much ear candy to come from Monsta on Subtrakt. Janner is back with another production master class The Power Of Sound - a classic at our residency at Drumattic - always one to get the crowd freaking, Rich subs and heavy filtered synths push the almighty kit of Janner from reverb to delay in another floor mangler from this UK exile. Defekta increases the pressure on the b side with Generator a cut full of colour and deep rhythms change and move around various basses and tones that wobble in and out leaving space for the lush piano to accent breaks and peaks. No stranger to the dub and the dupstep scene Rogue State finishes this EP off in true style. This dubby 4x4 number drives along side its skanks to bring any arena to a peek, crossing over many genres in sound. Big Tings A Gwarn Up Ere is set to appeal to all dub heads.

A1 FIRST HEARTBEAT LISTEN NOW Deep and seriously mesmerizing track that has captivated listeners and dancefloors all over the globe.
