NONPLUS002 Watching You - Instra:mental Nonplus Records 12" Vinyl

Instra:mental present the second release from their Nonplus imprint after the hugely successful Nonplus 001 'Wonder Where' / 'No Future'. This release consists of two tracks from Instra:mental. Again, the A side contains the vocal talent of frequent collaborator dBridge, and for the B side they switch up the style into what can only be described as Dub Techno. a) Instra:mental 'Watching You' stands up to the quality levels set by Nonplus 001 and continues the fusion of original vocals, Detroit influenced chords and their trademark tight percussion. Ice-cold robotic vocals and heart-warming chord stabs will make the hairs on your neck stand on end listen after listen. This tune is a timeless piece of music that no amount of jargon can justifiably explain. If you like the recent output from these guys then you will love this tune. aa) Instra:mental 'Tramma' is a 4/4 offering made of elements from Dub, Techno and DnB but is hard to pigeonhole into any particular genre. For descriptive purposes well call it dub techno. Once again we can hear their influences from all things electronic, and here we have an example of the variance that we expect from Nonplus and a glimpse of the vision that Instra:mental have for the future of this label.

EXIT016 Melodies feat Mike Knight - Spectrasoul Exit Recordings 12" Vinyl

Spectrasoul provide their debut single on Exit Records, which consists of two tracks written especially for the label. These two producers have proved their talent time and time again with a string of releases over the past two years and are definitely ones to watch in 2009/10. 'Melodies' is a clever combination of melancholic synth samples, used courtesy of legendary minimal electronica producers Isan, featuring the vocal talents of up and coming American RnB singer Mike Knight. An unconventional beat pattern makes this track stand out from the crowd and provides a refreshing break on the dancefloor. 'Insignia' comes with similar vibes on the B side, starting off with emotive pads and vocal snippets, dropping with low down sub stabs over another unconventional but highly effective beat. Both tracks have had support on the highly acclaimed autonomic podcasts (www.club-autonomic.com) and are receiving heavy rotation from DJs such as dBridge, Instrumental and Dubstep pioneer DJ Skream, which highlights the versatility of these tracks and the potential to cross into Dj sets from different genres.

OSR022 Sweet Spot / Radiate - Alley Cat / Vaccine Offshore 12" Vinyl

Finish copy. Alley Cat "Sweet Spot" Perhaps D&B's most underrated female DJ is back in the studio again. Offshore is proud to host her first production resurfacing- "Sweet Spot". A very progressive and forward thinking piece of music. Some would say that it fits into the current 'minimal' sound being championed by Instrumental and D-Bridge, but why pigeon hole it?

Vaccine "Radiate" Yet another edm vixen, Vaccine flips this girl power 12" with a Dubstep offering. "Radiate" is both sparkling and beautiful, yet a bit grimey underneath. It is truly a breathtaking affair with lovely strings and ethereal samples. Already praised by Mary Ann Hobbs and Kid Drama, this track is sure to be remembered.

NONPLUS001 Wonder Where / No Future - dBridge / Instra:mental Nonplus Records 12" Vinyl

After arriving back on the scene in 2006 Instra:mental have fast gained a reputation for re-sharpening the cutting edge approach to making music. Taking influence from their love of electronica and incorporating it into a fresh and unorthodox style, they have managed to create a distinctive and inspiring sound. In 2009 they have decided to start their own label in order to give them a focused outlet for their music, and also the music of other artists who they feel are on the same path. Quality, longevity, freedom of expression and nonconformity are some of the ideologies behind their new label, Nonplus+ Records.

a) dBridge 'Wonder Where':

'Wonder Where' by dBridge is a fine example of how the label means to continue. dBridge is hot off the back of his debut solo album "The Gemini Principle" in which he first gave us glimpses of a talent which he shares with his brother Steve Spacek as a vocalist. Since then he has been busy continuing to lay the foundations of his own respected imprint Exit Records. If his voice sounds familiar, perhaps you have heard the track "These Words" on which he featured on Martyn's highly regarded debut album "Great Lengths". Wonder Where is quite unique in the way it is regularly getting played in the sets of DJs from many genres. Drum n bass dj's such as Marcus Intalex, to soulful house Dj's like Benji B, and also Dubstep pioneer DJ Skream has regularly been finishing his sets with it. Dubstep legend Burial has also seen fit to include it in his upcoming DJ Kicks mix. This track is fast becoming an anthem among many different genres and is sure to be featured in many a dj's sets for many years to come.

aa) Instra:mental 'No Future':

Instra:mental have chosen their own track "No Future" which is ironic considering they obviously have a very big future ahead of them. Already licensed to the highly acclaimed Commix Fabriclive.44 this track (and most of their music) manages to resurrect the ghost of early electronic music with the essence of artists such as Model 500 and the legendary Detroit techno movement of the 80s and early 90s. Using original hardware drum machines and synthesizers to create the analogue warmth and groove which was synonymous of those times, they bring elements back to the music which have been somewhat lacking in recent years and laced it with all the benefits of modern music making advancements. This track will be loved and cherished by those who appreciate good music and will play just as well in the comfort of your own home as it would in a packed out dance floor.

ARGLP02_3 The Incredible Adventures Of Kenzolika & Quetzalcoatl Among The Air Castles Part 3 - Blasta Argon Records 12" Vinyl

Blasta met Kenzolika, Kyiv's dubstep princess, in November 2008. It all started with a coincidence - the owls were falling, and they keep falling now. Blasta is a musician based in Vaska, St. Petersburg, Russia. Each tune on the album is filled with pure sweet emotions. Feel the tension in "Your Dub Delay", a poignant cosmic dubstep anthem with vocals by Blasta. It doesn't matter if you are drinking the "Black Muscatel" wine, drifting through the clouds inside a "Zeppelin Nacelle", or just chilling and dancing slowly with beautiful girls inside the "Cosmic Lounge". "This LP is something that has popped up from nowhere and is to be one of the best dance album's I've heard in years, tracks like 'Cosmic Lounge' & 'Black Muscatel' are strong power plays from myself in the clubs and have had people singing with joy to the melodies or clenching their hearts with emotion - something you don't see in the clubs these days anymore due to the lack of good music played by the top DJs. Other tempo's on the album shows the talent that Blasta really has with music making.....This album WILL be remembered for years to come!!!!!" - Heny G

"The tunes are just snapshots of your feelings." - Quest

"This is as deep & sexy as it gets. Blasta delivers one of the most beautiful dubstep albums ever made." - L-Wiz

"This album is immense, breaking down boundaries in dubstep... pure vibes" - J:Kenzo

"Sophisticated dubstep music providing food for your soul! Pure jazzed out boogie! Blasta is sick!" - Distinction

"Blasta reconcilie le dubstep et la soul music. Un retour aux sources efficace!" - Von D

Blasta gives birth to a brand new sound, true future music. Music that is cooked from the most delicious rave, dub and jazz flavors ever created. This album gives you a complete feeling of tenderness and love, taken from the winter and fitting perfectly into the early spring.

BRK012 Cave Rave - Geiom & Spamchop Berkane Sol 12" Vinyl

Geiom + Spamchop find themselves in a distant mysterious land ravaged by sub zero temperatures. Across the hills they can hear faint echoes of deep bass..Crunching through the snow towards the source they discover a party in a massive cave full of odd rock formations and sparkling crystals. The ravers seem slightly unhinged but happy, dancing to strange future music that reminds our explorers of uk garage without the bling...Spamchop records some of it into his phone for future analysis - when the pair get back to the studio 'Cave Rave' is the result. After the beach jam which spawned 'Eyl Booty' (brk011) Geiom is making preparations to leave when one of the pirates shows him a video camera with footage of their most ambitious raid - the capture of the Sirius Star oil tanker - Geiom likes the idea of this ramshackle bunch going head to head with the greedy oil barons. He agrees to make the pirates something they can pump out while they make their way across the Indian Ocean - 'give us something with a lot of bass - we kitted out our speedboats with some tasty subwoofers' is the request. Geiom also includes some audio from the footage for good measure. 'Sirius Star' is going to be rocking boats, cars and raves everywhere for some time to come...

ROGUE STATE - LOGICAL REGRESSION

Another meaty slab of Rogue's own niche influenced dubstep style, this track was influenced by the mighty LTJ Bukem. Rogue is on top form here with depth and emotion created through the synthy intro whilst the tearout drop will get anyone moving.

TWISTED - INFECT

Hailing from Germany and part of the Dutty Dubs crew, Twisted is starting to make real impact on the international scene. The super slick mixdown is what first attracted us to him but it was this phenomenally heavy weight track that made us decide to release Twisted. Bass face time!

DP009 Acton Dread - Rusko Dub Police Records 12" Vinyl

Repressed due to Demand! The most talked about producer of the moment returns for more dub wise dubstep, Rusko brings the vibes on his 2nd dub police outing The most talked about producer of the moment returns for more dub wise dubstep. The first "acton dread", inspired by rusko's London borough, kicks off with a summertime digi-dub bounce. hypnotic flutes and wailing vocals give way to a pulsing sub bass, reggae shuffles and catchy themes, showcasing the dub-style production that's made Rusko a favourite of djs like skream and radio 1's rob da bank. Listen carefully for London underground announcements lurking in the background of the tune! Flipping over we see rusko on remix duties for local boy Caspa. This tounge in cheek refix sees rusko adding his trademark trance synths and bumpy sub bass to the lilting Japanese flute melodies, space age effects and jungle percussion. DP020 Transaction - Sub Scape Dub Police Records 12" Vinyl Repressed due to Demand! Badman: New signing SubScape steps up to the now privileged rotor of Dub Police, with two bad boy cuts that have been destroying dance floors for a while now. First up is Badman which has received massive big support from Caspa, The Scratch Perverts, Rusko, Reso and The Others to name a few. A simple intro with hints of devastating bass being teased in and out before the drop comes and some serious bass action that is guaranteed to get any floor moving. Transaction: Again this tune is not for the faint hearted, and is likely to rip up any dance floor. Rip roaring bass that will tear your head off and shit down your neck, and beats so tuff they should come with a health warning. With more releases lined up for Dub Police and gaining support from key players in and from outside the scene; this guy is one to watch for sure.

DP023 License To Thrill Part 4 - Caspa & Rusko / Unitz Dub Police Records 12" Vinyl

Repressed due to demand. Caspa & Rusko - Soulful Geeza: Kicking off the next chapter in the LTT series is this deep track Caspa & Rusko and isn't what you would quite expect from these two, whose tracks are usually all out dance floor dominators. Warm pads, trance esq. synths, and a steppey beats really set this one apart from the typical sound these two are so well known for. What better way to kick things off? Unitz - Wait A Minute: Things couldn't get more different on the flip, as Dub Police's very own boy wonder Unitz steps up with this sickening track. Fans of his first release (The Drop) will be digging this as the synth twists and bends like a slinky, and a crisp powerful bass and big beats carries the whole track. Proper sick stuff.
