New D&B CD

NONPLUSCD001 Nothing Is Certain - ASC Nonplus Records CD

Since his first appearance on Nonplus, ASC has been hard at work on his LP and its finally here. Starting with a 12" sampler he dives right in at the deep end with 'Phobos' in which electronic grooves and micro samples entwine against a backdrop of dramatic tones and industrial hits. Followed on the same side by the atmospheric hiatus 'Oort Cloud' you have a good inclination of the impending album by now, but are also treated to the AA-side 'Matter Of Time'. Like a continuation of his debut Nonplus 12" track 'Porcelain', his crafty use of oriental sounding percussion, windlike sounds and melodies combined with an efficacious bass line make this track very hard to listen to in its entirety before you reach for the reset. The album touches on many genres from start to finish such as the 4x4 offering of 'Textura', or the almost indescribable step of 'Yatta', but one common theme that this album holds throughout is the amalgamation of influences derived from all genres of music and ASC's ability to combine these to create something new and unique. Collaborations with fellow Nonplus artist Vaccine and Exit Records artist Consequence add fuel to the fire, keeping it burning hot from start to finish. BLR004R Make Or Break / Stampede - Outrage / Digital & Outrage Backlash Records 12" Vinyl Keepin' it nice and nasty Backlash hits you with their fourth outing for this Summer 2010. Kickin' things into high gear is the grimy rumble of Outrage's "Make Or Break", which builds on a simply effective melody that gets your head noddin' and your waist windin'. Interesting tune to drop in your mix, with enough space to cause mass hysteria. Following that is another stellar collaborative banger from Digital and Outrage in the form of "Stampede". It builds like an oncoming rush of wild animals...the intro plays the calm before you start seeing a cloud of dust kicked up, heightening anticipation and fear, which climaxes in the rush of that sweeping bassline. When this one drops, you get two choices: move or move out of the way! Big boy riddims on both sides of this plate, which is par for the course when it comes to Backlash.

31R046 Detached / Perish - Sam KDC 31 Records 12" Vinyl

Finish copy. One of most innovative producers in the Drum & Bass and electronic music scene, Sam KDC display a depth and psychedelic mood. stunningly beautiful music as opposed to simply 'drum & bass'. Sam explains 'The 12" is a really special one to me, both the tunes reflect some really deep rooted memories and feelings of mine. I used to feel like that as a kid listening to Pink Floyd, especially at the beginning of "Comfortably Numb", something else that was very influential to this piece. The other side, "Perish" is a really personal to me. I finished it and loved it but didn't want to send it to anyone. It was my housemate at the time, Frank, that convinced me to show it to others, not through what he said, but the fact he asked me for a copy of it and I used to come home and I'd hear it blasting out of his room and he doesn't even like DnB, so that was a sign to me for that one... The first vocal right at the beginning says "I feel safe with you" and that was something that was missing in my life at the time, and in truth, still is... I called it "Perish" because I sampled a home video from a couple of years ago that I wanted gone, I got rid of the video once I'd taken the audio from it and so it was like that moment in my life was trapped in that piece of music, with all other remaining context of it lost... Perished... taken from <http://www.dubplatedigest.net/2010/05/dsm-presents-triad-and-sam-kdc.html>

TELLURIC012 Soulwave / Vegas - dRomatic + dbAudio / Blade Telluric Recordings 12" Vinyl

Finish copy. First up is a duo whose names are on the tip of everyone's tongue at the moment: UK's dRomatic + dbAudio stake their ground within the TELLURIC camp with their first label offering in form of 'Soulwave.' Wasting no time, the pair get straight down to business with a richly-textured mosaic of soul music. Well-polished breaks, emotive vocals, and an uplifting piano line are underpinned by a locomotive sub bassline combining to make one memorable slab of dance floor pressure. Huge Support From LTJ Bukem, Fabio, Bailey, Nookie, Paul SG. Flip the wax over as we welcome yet another artist on-the-rise to the TELLURIC family. UK's Blade marks his label debut with the captivating deepness of 'Vegas.' PRSPCTLTD003 World In A Box / The Witch - Freqax PRSPCT 12" Vinyl

There is no stopping its furious attack on the dancefloors and this latest LTD release is another one that's just too hot to handle.. This 3rd instalment comes from the likes of Freqax.. World In A Box has already been slayed on the dancefloors numerous times.. A sick tight rolling production with a little wink to the happier hardcore styles.. With its epic intro and massive drop this is one to play over and over and over again! The Witch is on a similar tip.. Big bad beats combined with even more bigger, badder &aggier sounds... Tech & industrial with a dash of jump... a deadly combination!

INMD007 Only Words DNB VIP / All The Time - Blue Motion Influenza Media 12" Vinyl

Finish copy. Anyone that's been paying attention to the more chilled out spectrum of drum & bass might find Influenza label owner, Eros causing quite a stir as of late. 2009 saw releases on Golden Orb, InnerGround, Fokuz, Good Looking and of course, Influenza Media; and collaborations with Paul SG, Atmospherix, Mutt, The Square and Soulgrifter. But Eros' latest project, and perhaps most impressive, is his collaboration with Dirrrty B as Blue Motion. Since November 2009, these two have pressed their driven, upbeat sound into a plethora of labels including Phunkfiction, Good Looking, Fokuz, Ingredients, Future Thinkin, Temper D Productions, VibeZ, Peer Pressure, Amen Brother, Point 9 Audio, Funk Star and many more. As we come into this fantastic release, we are met by the mystifying but beautiful intro of Only Words VIP. As if climbing a mountain, the layers just continue to build - synths, bass, rolling drums, and, of course, what melodic track wouldn't be complete without a few angelic wind instruments? As the break rolls through, the melody rebuilds creating a state of ecstasy once again. All The Time chills it out a bit, bringing forth the soul element with Grimm on vocals. A beautifully constructed string bassline leads the way to the drop, as atmospheric trumpet riffs ring in the background. Get touched on this one!

G-ILLA005 Guilty / Black Monday - Krusha Guerilla 12" Vinyl

Finish copy. GUERILLA 05 12" Features non other than George Krakus aka KRUSHA 'Guilty' is one for the deep rooted soldiers. Epic strings and orchestra sweeps encompass wild roaring amens and ridiculous glitches. And just when you thin its over .. the tune really works out the madness of Krusha's mind. he only thing this record is Guilty of is smashing it up. 'Black Monday' totally lets Krusha expiement with the industrial - hard metal edge found in alot of his earlier releases on label's such as Barcode & Obscene. The intro creeps in. Winding around like a whirlpool till it drops into haltime rickus of eachoes and bass squelches. Grinding metal riffs all the way thru this piece. Defintley one for the die hard Krusha fans.

CHST009 No Warning / Jungle Fears - Distance Chestplate 12" Vinyl

Hot on the tails of the last double A-sider 'Menace' / 'Beyond', Chestplate returns with some fresh cut flavours, once again from head honcho Distance. 'No Warning' is a floor filling anthem of a tune, with DJ support coming from a range of top names including Skream, Hatcha, Joker, N-Type, Youngsta, Pinch, and many more. In true Distance style 'No Warning' starts with a cold errie backdrop, setting the scene for the devastating drop that follows. The hard hitting b-line teases you in the drop before crashing in full weight - combining a filthy thrash guitar sound with intricate future-tech synth programming - everything you need to ignite an instant mosh pit! Flip then for 'Jungle Fears' - a carefully constructed deeper and more erie sonic experience in comparison to the more dancefloor sound of 'No Warning'. Distance takes you through the paranoid soundscapes of a non-descript cyber jungle, with glitched out edits tearing you from one section to the next, haunting pads and tortured synths lighting the path way through. Don't listen to this on your own late at night!
